There won't be peace until there is justice, will there be justice without order, will there be order without tyranny ? #The chicken and the egg.

There's always someone tailgating, always someone in your rearview mirror... it's their job... they're called loved ones.

Haven't taken the best care of this bod God gave me...so why expect Him to let me keep it? # Reprieve please 🙏 😊.

"29 Palms" ... is that where it all comes together?

Of course we miss the mark and are self-centered... the world's always been a competitive place, where only the strong survive and they don't mind gaining an advantage. #Please help us do better 🙏

"We're going to see re-localization we're going to see power relocate to lower levels even below state level because it's unclear whether these huge government in control things either" ...James Howard Kunstler (paraphrased)

The suburbs are not the place to be, the smaller disenfranchised, ignored towns and cities perhaps along the Ohio and the Mississippi rivers and the Midwest that may be best. Most people think we're moving towards a period of greater technocracy he thinks we're moving towards a period of less technocracy where there will be a period of instability but eventually the powers that be may be dethroned if I understand him correctly. My take on what James Howard Kunstler said on max Kaiser episode 1792.

"You have the right to be informed without being influenced... blah, blah, blah" ... WISH TV # Another biased network's slogan.

If you're perfectly happy making decisions for others, then ~ Houston we have a problem.

If your biology or whatever compels you to, go right ahead but don't expect others to stand idly by.

If you're constantly in a bad mood and others aren't, don't expect them to make adjustments on your behalf.

"You mean, they could still be living in a primitive state of neurotic irresponsibility?" ... Barbarella

Intermittent fasting's hard but can you delay eating for one minute? It's not much but it's a start and it's necessary.

God, family and country in that order... then... what does each mean?

We're stronger together so let's be willing to negotiate and compromise... but not surrender.

Some peeps are like drones and hovercrafts... Who's yours? #Is it "NotABigDeal"...are they're supposed to be...Maybe, maybe not.

Some peeps complain even more than the rest of us, that's how they come off the shelf, that's how they get things done and that's the army they have... doesn't mean we should put up with it.

Watching Beth in "Yellowstone" makes me think her thought process is otherworldly, I don't understand women at all - or she's been horribly traumatized# Who writes this stuff?

"We tend to create stories that appeal to us and then we have a habit of imposing the stories on the past"... Dr. Tobias Capwell, Curator of Armor at the Wallace Collection, about the battle of Agincourt.

The Battle of Agincourt keeps cropping up, Churchill commissioned Olivier to make Henry the Fifth to motivate British troops and boost morale in advance of the allied invasion of France.

"And as our vineyards, fallows, meads, and hedges,
Defective in their natures, grow to wildness,
Even so our houses and ourselves and children
Have lost, or do not learn for want of time,
The sciences that should become our country,
But grow like savages, as soldiers will

That nothing do but meditate on blood,
To swearing and stern looks, diffused attire,
And everything that seems unnatural.
Which to reduce into our former favor
You are assembled, and my speech entreats
That I may know the let why gentle peace
Should not expel these inconveniences
And bless us with her former qualities” ... Duke of Burgundy Henry V, by William Shakespeare

There’s peeps I’d like to see deported, cause IMO they’re enemies of the Constitution and therefore enemies of the people... if they come back, I would treat them as invaders.

Woman was created a bit below the angels and man well below the gods.

There were 269 murders in Indianapolis in 2021, another new record. They propose spending $150 million to reduce violence and I hope it works. Every human being is capable of violence, every demographic has a criminal element and for a variety of reasons some have more. The activists, religionists and ex-sports, wring their hands, make demands and propose solutions... but it gets no better.

The Bloomberg anchor’s an odd-looking woman but not in a bad way...

We've tried everything on the rust ring, iron out salt, rust remover powder and sprays but the best thing's a sock.

There's no reason to state the obvious cause the one thing we know's they won't hold their tongue. Even close friends throw each other under the bus for "gain" no matter how short lived. Loyalty's based on self-interest and allegiance goes to whoever we think will lead us to salvation. Dogs doesn't worry about eternity so they can be loyal.

Age has a funny way of sneaking up on you ~ while back realized 'twas old enough to most peeps daddy... now I'm old enough to be their gramp.

Christmas' come and gone, reminding me peeps aren't interested in the truth, they're interested in salvation... guess that's to be expected.

"I ask questions, that's my business and I'm fascinated by the answers that I come to but I think just the sheer effect of posing a question means that you have seen something perhaps wrong and you want to know precisely what's going on and most of my questions concern matters of a spiritual nature one way or another ~ that's my passion" ... Michael Baigent

'We've tried to universalize all our principles and the lines have gotten lost through that urge, we've forgotten the pragmatic, we've forgotten that we're human beings, living on this earth, trying to survive' ... Michael Baigent

'These fundamentalists, these extremists don't seem to care, their ideology, their belief system is more important than the slightest aspect of humanity. I mean they seem to have forgotten that Jesus said blessed are the merciful, blessed are the peacemakers. The fundamentalist Christians see Jesus as a man in a long robe stained with blood there's a lot of violence and a lot of piles of bodies in fundamentalism of every stripe, whereas the moderate factions of all three religions want to live a good life, want to worship the divine, want to get on with their neighbors, want to help each other, want their children to go to school, want to have a job, they are not involved in this extremism and unfortunately because of our circle of tolerance we've given this extremism a voice and because of our political adventurism we've given this extremism a kind of hook to hang it's nasty ideas on'... Michael Baigent (Miriam Knight interview)

'Well I grew up I suppose with a minor version of the northern Ireland problem at home with a clash between Protestantism in Catholicism and this made me wonder about religion what was the point of it there seem to be something going on something valid at the heart of it but I couldn't come to grips with the theology of it or the dog my oven and while quite young I suppose that's quite precocious are used to go around all the various church is available in our kids and unity and 10 services talk to clergyman read about it I was trying to find out what is going on at the basis of religion it took me years and years and years moving from Christian religions through to eastern religions but finally in my early 20s I had an experience which I would describe as an experience of great spirituality but no religion and this experience really has motivated the rest of my life afterwards. The idea was I mean how can I question, the question it hit me was how can I use this what can I do with what I've just experienced'...
Michael Baigent

'I don't think there's any one group manipulating the three types of fundamentalism but the fact is that they're all feeding off one another. The Islamic groups are quoting revelation they're quoting the Christian fundamentalist such as Jerry Falwell for example and they're all believing in a return of their messiah Islam and Christianity believe there is a major battle. For Christianity it's a major battle where Jesus comes back and everyone's converted to Christianity. Islam there's a major battle with Jesus and the Mahdi come back and they destroy everyone who Jewish absolutely slaughter Judaism ~ no the problem is the possibility that this might turn into a self-fulfilling prophecy. That's the danger I'm warning about because cultures are quite vulnerable and our democracies. Look what happened in the Balkans in the 1990s, where it very quickly collapsed into savagery' ... Michael Baigent

'It has not been our diversity but our ability to overcome the problems inherent in diversity and to act together as Americans that has been our strength' ... Thomas Sowell

Interviewer, 'How did diversity become this kind of totem in society to which we all must...'

—~ Thomas Sowell... 'It's applying the propaganda principles of Nazi propaganda minister Joseph Goebbels who said, people will believe any lie, if you say it often enough and loud enough.'

When in doubt blot ...

He may be a good reporter but he's too biased and won't be my filter.

When things don't matter – don't make them matter.

Alles bij elkaar genomen ben ik best gelukkig geweest, maar het huwelijk kan moeilijk zijn en ik heb over de 'tumultueuze' dingen geschreven. Voor zover ik weet ben ik teruggegaan en heb ik ze zowat allemaal verwijderd...

Every person, ethnic group, race and religion deserves equality, but Obama should've never been president because he's an enemy of the Constitution. Unfortunately whites were split and smitten, while blacks were almost monolithic in their support of this demi-god. He did irreparable harm to the country and Biden is the icing on the cake. The Clinton, Obama, Bama, oligarchs use mafia tactics and might say such is necessary to replace the existing mafia... me thinks they're wrong and worse than the current mafia.

“...Another one is 'FIRE', you know 'financial independence, retire early', the desire for some kind of lifestyle that's not working 40 hours to pay your student loan debt and make billionaires richer”... Charles Hugh Smith

'People find reasons to cooperate in an integrated stage and reasons not to cooperate during a disintegrated stage... Peter Turgeon

'Clearly we're in a disintegrated stage... we want to find reasons to cooperate despite our many differences in politics and regional concerns'... We need to elect local politicians who are not partisan so we can find common ground'... Charles Hugh Smith ‘Censorship basically takes human society and eliminates mutation so you’re left with this stagnant decaying wreck that has no adaptability’... Charles Hugh Smith on Totalitarian social media giants assumably; Facebook, Twitter etc.

‘There’s a definite link between wealth inequality, social disorder and collapse’..... Charles Hugh Smith (on smash, grabs and looting.)

If the surveillance cameras are right, blacks are disproportionate the majority in smash, grabs and looting ~ which some don’t call crimes ~ but might be seen as Canaries in the coal mine.

‘The idea that billionaires can buy political power with just a thin slice of their wealth has to become unacceptable’...Charles Hugh Smith

With Covid beliefs becoming religious in nature, I don’t completely believe what anyone says. It’s a fast moving, changing landscape with agendas like no tomorrow.

If I say this ‘not the America I signed up for’, and ‘not the country I was born in’, is it cave man copout thinking ~ or a rallying call...

Most peeps want to leave something behind... I think. The easiest and probably best way is children... works of art and literature, conquests and riches fall short. The latter of which are ill-conceived, braggadocious – and require bad behavior.

“You’re just as far in as you’ll ever be out” ...Anna Nalick

We’re all sinners but is our intent relevant? # Does it matter?

I won’t work with you ~ it’s personal reasons but nothing personal....

29 palms guardian angel? ‘I feel the heat of your desert heart’... ‘like the wind you are free’...Robert plant — like others ~ don’t like being ridiculed, insulted, humiliated or embarrassed... like being treated kindly.

The preacher repeatedly said “God can’t change”, but if God can do anything, couldn’t he change?

By some standards, looters may be good peeps but they’re not good citizens... pay reparations or be deported.

Inmates should be offered jobs at fair wages and if they refuse shouldn’t be fed.

Prison trouble-makers should be given a chance to reform and if they continue causing trouble... punish them as needed, all the way to the gallows.

Athletics records are generally objective, music’s more subjective – I’m impressed by athleticism but it’s not my cup of tea. Comedy’s also subjective and I'm turned off by 'clever' vulgarity and pushing our collective buttons. Audiences increasingly accept and revel in hearing the foulest language imaginable. Many comedians now insert the 'F' word into almost every sentence... apparently the producers urge or require them to.

Two words that sound somewhat alike but have almost opposite meanings are elevate and alleviate. When used in a sentence it's like this, 'the doctor is supposed to alleviate pain and suffering but sometimes while looking out for the patient in the long run they elevate it.'

If you're trying to lose weight or trying to accomplish darn near anything you have to have at least a little bit of willpower. Then you can leverage it but if you have absolutely none it will be a tough slog. If that's the case, address the problem of why you have no willpower and tackle it hard.

My body is a traitor... after all I'm 65

The average person of any persuasion mostly wants the same things and most of these are good or benign ~ but their leaders and ours want control... not only over their constituents but over everyone.

Deportations and disenfranchisements may be the only way to save this country and avoid a Civil War. Specific demographics should not be targeted but the results will likely favor certain ones.

I will continue to trust my eyes and ears not yours...and especially not your words.

Before I say 'may all your dreams come true', might I ask ~ what the heck are they?

Recovering from Omicron and feeling decent, I march round ranting and raving bout the news, laughing and scowling. Singing to YouTube I sit down too fast, feel a pinch in my back and wonder if it's a warning or a spanking? I slow down and hope it's not too late...

Voor zover ik weet, mag je de predikanten "marsorders" meestal over mij nemen ... that's why I believe in trust but verify.

My faith's in God not churches or religions.

I would hazard to guess that the ratio of information to misinformation is less than 50-50 in the world today.

Sarcastically speaking men are called tools and women toys... wish it were pure nonsense.

Our paths may have diverged a hundred thousands years ago but we're still "together" ... too bad.

What we need is divine, not supernatural intervention... lets pray for it. .

Ik denk dat ik zijn ouders op de begrafenis heb verteld dat hij mijn leven heeft gered, hen had moeten vertellen dat hij mijn beste vriend ooit was... want dat is de waarheid.

There's liberal and there's liberal to a fault, and the same for conservative... we know the types. # What are we?

Aangezien we honderden generaties teruggaan, zijn er misschien weinig of geen mensen van 'pure' raciale of etnische afkomst, maar dat doet niets af aan het feit dat als een overwegend 'blank individu' paart met een individu van enig ander overwicht, je niet langer een wit persoon hebt en bijvoorbeeld tot het meest extreme hypothetische wordt gebracht, als elke blanke persoon alleen kinderen zou krijgen met mensen van andere genomen, zou het 'blanke ras' absoluut verdwijnen in het genoom van anderen ... natuurlijk is dat misschien wat je wilt.

The opposite is not the case.

Watching documentaries on human migration and the evolution of our species no matter how "credentialed, authoritative and legitimate" the producers are be it Smithsonian, National Geo etc, I see political science steering the results per 'the producers' preference. # it is inevitable and always has been.

Problem is peeps follow leaders and leaders are usually more extreme than their constituents.

Rats get on ships, when we don't evict them we suffer the consequences.

Had Covid last month, I'm approximately recovered and roughly alive...

Like archaeology bell-curves are criticized cause they may uncover truths... doesn't mean they're reported accurately and correctly interpreted.

Familieleden komen op bezoek en ik denk dat ik dingen in mijn kantoor zal opsluiten en mijn computer zal beveiligen. De vorige keer was ik verbaasd dat het familielid dat ik het zou verwachten, foto's maakte van dingen in mijn kantoor zonder mijn toestemming ... Ik geloof dat het 's nachts gebeurde. Weet niet of het genealogie, boedeldocumenten of iets anders waren, maar ik vond het niet leuk.

Is er iemand in uw familie die u het meest vertrouwt? In mijn geval is het meestal situationeel, maar er kan iemand zijn met wie ik de grootste samenvloeiing heb.

Ik wil van hen gescheiden zijn op basis van onverzoenlijke verschillen en een heel ander wereldbeeld.

Er zijn verschillende groepen onder wie zelfs de achterban het voor ons heeft, niet alleen hun leiders, dus ik ben het meest op mijn hoede voor dergelijke mensen.

Like it or not there are certain ethnicities with higher IQs. Whether or not that is relevant 'may' be a matter of opinion. In my opinion it make a difference but I don't downplay that very special qualities are evident in pops with the lowest IQs.

To the brilliant minds out there who say there is no God... Einstein was pretty smart too... and he had some thoughts on the subject. # Open to interpretation.

Instead of blaming everything on the Democrats or Republicans I am realizing there are different world views and many different visions for America's future. Of the different visions for America, some are compatible with other, some are compatible with compromise and some are incompatible. So the question becomes what do we do about it?

Should we force each other to submit to the others will? Hopefully there's a better, peaceful way and the vast expanse of space may be the saving grace... but who goes and who stays? Therein lies the usual proverbial rub, unfortunately we may be back where we started. So, who gets Venus and who gets Mars, or are they're already Little Green peeps up there? # Can peeps quickly terraform planets and other 'heavenly bodies.'

I think it's more important to compromise with our spouses then with strangers who have different world views than us... even if our spouse has a different vision, our common interests may be overwhelmingly helpful.

In some countries it's a particular demographic that takes over completely and rules... sometimes it's the natives, sometimes invaders or immigrants.

In our country several ideologies and theologies are fighting for supremacy... some are relatively diverse in their makeup... some are not.

Seems the more progressive ones are more diverse, in that in addition to their base, they also include a significant number of the founders' descendants. The less progressive ones are more often comprised mostly of the founders' descendants with little 'success' in attracting or in some cases of wanting to attract people different than themselves. Descendants of the founders may be left out in the cold by progressives who due to; higher birth rates, illegal immigration, universal voting rights etc. may eventually overwhelm those they call privileged oppressors... IMO that's largely an unholy bunch of crap. When you look at the record of the self-proclaimed victims, their claims are spurious, bogus, self-service and false.

Muffin's not a false flag, but it garners attention with no mention of the medicine lying within. # Truth in advertising ☺

I guess it's natural since humans are social animals that we would have leaders but it's a shame there's so much corruption and greed

Watching the usual crap on TV reminds me, I'm neither for the Africanization or the Chinafication of America but someone sure is....

Watching commercials me thinks I don't want to be forced to be an 'equal opportunity employer' but know I must... tisn't our criteria but yours that prevails ~ backed by money and force.

Starting to wonder if Qumran's 'Sons of Light', who considered themselves the cream of the crop, we're all they're cracked up to be, or mostly just folks like the rest of us. In the documentary, "The Mystery of the Dead Sea Scrolls", Stephan Pfann from the University of the Holy Land, claims they wouldn't allow the blind deaf or lame to enter their, "sacred precincts." He explains why...

Russian aggression, or NATO expansionism ~ take your pick... either way it's the common man and woman who will suffer.

The Founding Father's we're imperfect but at least they espoused a system based on justice ~ if not equality. The more tyrannical systems including the latest, espouse little or nothing comparable, or if they do, it's lies and lip-service designed to further total control over the populace.

Please don't Foushee anyone... it's indecent.

If the state would accept my filing for official separation from; NWO, OG, PTA etc... I'd be grateful.

After helping out for 30 minutes of fairly heavy exertion yesterday I was unable to take deep breaths last night. Used the oxygen sensor on my finger and everything appeared OK but I was also coughing more than usual. Coughing in particular may have been due to our humidifier depositing fine powder on everything assumably including our lungs. I'm reminded that at 65, not a young man, not in my prime and almost universally 65-year-olds are in decline.

Anne-Marie Horndern Bloomberg nieuws kijk naar de ogen op dat meisje... men kan zich alleen maar de muffin voorstellen 😊 😊 😊.

For what it's worth, I admire her intellect too.

NATO led by the US versus the EU ~ are there tentacles stretching back to the Normans versus the Papacy. Freemasons, Templars and pirates... is there a connection to Normans, Vikings and our own hereditary aristocracy? And how many of those Nazi scientists brought to the US after World War II to bolster NASA, were truly were Nazis? Probably a lot but to say they've perpetuated a Nazi conspiracy in the U.S. is probably a stretch...

Is there an element of sensationalism in those reports? Do the Elders of Zion figure in... do they even exist? Meanwhile China says the 'right things' publicly regarding security guarantees in the matter of Russia Ukraine and NATO a.k.a. the USA but are Russia and China natural allies or the opposite, and we must take whatever China says with boatloads of salt.

Meanwhile the US moves; troops, an aircraft carrier and fighter jets into 'the theater' aka danger zone. In an all out war can an aircraft carrier withstand Zircon, hypersonic, torpedo or cruise missile strikes?

WIP it's good 😊.

There're all kinds of reasons I'd like to see the family thrive... but you might think they're stupid 😏.

Alex Jones may be a genius but even he doesn't have the time, resources and intellect to collect and accurately process all the available incoming information... there's just too much of it and doesn't he have a personal bias?

Anyone who thinks they've got 'a handle' on things is sadly mistaken.

Who have I lost respect for more ~ the women who depict lesbian acts in; movies, TV, music videos etc. whether they're lesbians or not, or the producers of these so-called 'artistic works', who I'm guessing are mostly men... or at least used to be? I suppose everyone involved, especially the women in these productions are to 'some extent' just trying to 'pay the bills' but others are also trying to ram 'something' down our throats. The rebuttal that we can just 'change the channel' is hollow when they know they're pushing our buttons... primeval buttons, in some cases causing irreversible harm.

Herd mentality affects men and women and it's powered by; influencers, the medias, biology etc.

China, India and others refuse to make commitments to climate change while demanding America make them, saying we have been the big polluter during the Industrial Age. I wonder if that's true since their populations were larger and their peeps were burning; coal, charcoal wood, dung or whatever to heat their homes and power their millions of smaller shops and factories what is the truth? In America during the early industrial age, to some extent did we centralize our power plants, and was that more efficient than their millions of small furnaces, fires etc.. Now as we shut down coal plants, they build new ones.

Hopefully we'll learn we're being played before it's too late... # if it isn't already.

Violence, vulgarity and thuggery...may be where we're headed, and it's happened before. Ancient Egypt's one example... where the Nubians ruled for over 100 years. Wouldn't be surprised if it's one of the infinite cycles of the universes.

Does dark matter really hold us together?

"A democratic republic is a form of government operating on principles adopted from a republic and a democracy. As a cross between two entirely separate systems, democratic republics may function on principles shared by both republics and democracies... Common definitions of the terms democracy and republic often feature overlapping concerns, suggesting that many democracies function as republics, and many republics operate on democratic principles, as shown by these definitions from the Oxford English Dictionary:

Republic: "A state in which supreme power is held by the people and their elected representatives..."[1]

Democracy: "A system of government by the whole population or all the eligible members of a state, typically through elected representatives."[2]

Eugene Volokh of the UCLA School of Law notes that the United States exemplifies the varied nature of a constitutional republic—a country where some decisions (often local) are made by direct democratic processes, while others (often federal) are made by democratically elected representatives.[3] As with many large systems, US governance is incompletely described by any single term. It also employs the concept, for instance, of a constitutional democracy in which a court system is involved in matters of jurisprudence.[3]

However, these republics were, indeed, democratic republics that used Soviet democracy, a complicated form of indirect democracy.[citation needed]

As with other democracies, not all persons in a democratic republic are necessarily citizens, and not all citizens are necessarily entitled to vote.[4] Suffrage is commonly restricted by criteria such as voting age.[5] and sometimes by felony or imprisonment status” ...Wikipedia.

If America was formed as a democratic republic, consideration should be given to disenfranchising those who are on massive public assistance paid for by the taxpayer. A ‘formula’ should determine if someone is exceeding the maximum threshold of public assistance and they should lose the right to vote until they drop below that threshold... is that a pipe dream?

The Converse should not be true, neither the Uber rich nor anyone should get extra votes if they pay high taxes and hard-pressed middle class tax payers should receive the fairest treatment.... it would be a first.

“The problem with socialism is that you eventually run out of other people's money” ...Margaret Thatcher

Since the forces arrayed against us are more than formidable and ‘not very nice’, we need divine not supernatural intervention.... They may have the latter and are welcome to it.

Short-term memory's important for survival but long-term memory's even more important... in the long run.

Stick to your principles and the demographics just might work out... you may end up among peeps you like, generally agree with and are comfortable with.

When u bend, use your knees and get used to some pain, it might help you avoid 'blowing out' your back ... If your knees are the worse than your back do the opposite.

Battle of the sexes ~ it would be nice if we could have a true peace treaty or armistice, which many women want too... that's the sweet spot.

Meanwhile back at the boudoir, if it makes her wiggle I'm willing to do it... # If she wants me to 😊

My parents weren't perfect but of the peeps from their gen, they're my favorite role models.

There're MANY beautiful girls out there but I'm happy with "mine."

The muffin's not a rip off or false flag... it's a clever advertisement.

The news is designed and determined to do several things; scare, propagandize and advertise ... aka tell and sell.

Got my "I'm officially filing" T-shirt today... PTB, PTA and NWO to name a few

Me thinks we've all been lobotimized... how else do you explain that no one 'gets it.' # Is it in the water? ☺

If u give in to rioters and looters, it's appeasement... maybe not the same as Chamberlain's, but equaling dangerous.

'America has a case of Stockholm Syndrome; they've fallen in love with their captors'... Max Keiser

'We have met the enemy and he is us'... Walt Kelly (Pogo)

'We have nothing to fear but fear itself'... FDR & his speech writers; Raymond Moley & Louis Howe, 1934.

Hippa law means she can't comment... what about me? I'd like to speak up but due to; past mistakes, histrionics and hysteria, it's dicier than it looks. # we'll see.

Slow down and you might get sooner... safer anyway 😊.

One thing I don't like bout crocs is bouncing... they land upside down.

Challenging your short-term memory and don't be surprised when you fail the test... at least you're tryng. # Lists are for important stuff 😊

"Even in 1929 you had some magnificent rallies and buy the dip is a watchword of practically every brokerage house out there and always is. You never, almost never have a major brokerage house say the game's over... it doesn't happen" ~ Jeremy Grantham

"We've had a very very abnormal honeymoon Goldilocks. For 20 years which I think is ending... we're going to live in a world of bottlenecks, shortages and price hikes and we're going to have to get used to it and learn to manage our way around.

Inflation is quite likely to pick up. Looking into the future it's pretty clear that we're running out of labor, fertility rates have dropped like a stone... everywhere in the developed world we're below replacement fertility" ...
Jeremy Grantham # 5)$(# 'to the rescue ☺'

'Green will turn out to be just a subset of a bigger more complicated comprehensive issue and that is loosely speaking ~ living within our means. We have simply shot way beyond the longterm capacity of the planet to deal with us and one of the problems is waste, and this is not just climate change and greenhouse gases but of course plastics. It's also poisons, we generate so many toxic chemicals that there is a strong indication that the planet is really not conducive to life. We are killing off our insect life, we are killing off all manner of animal life the world can do just fine without Homo-sapiens... "nature can do fine without us we cannot do fine without nature"(paraphrased?)... we have 1/3 of the sperm count that we had at the end of World War II... we've gone from a rounding error to 15% of couples needing help' ... Jeremy Grantham

Are the old guard prognosticators like; Grantham, Dalio, Buffet etc to be revered, or are they broken clocks? Watching the new generation of financial prophets, I wonder who'll 'guess' right.

Mixed feelings about honest Abe he kept the union together and ended slavery but it cost 600,000 + American lives. Wouldn't slavery have ended anyway? Was keeping the union together crucially important? We're taught it was but look at what big government's done to 'states rights'... on the other hand the south fired on fort Sumter and that started the war at least that's what we're taught.

Funny...the slower I move, the faster things get done...how weird's that? If adapted years ago there'd still be cartilage in my knees 😊 #Doesn't work in sports 🏀

Is it my imagination or is Newsmax Cathlo-centric and OAN Proto-centric? The former has a Vatican news show and some of the latter's anchors preach. Then there's Ms. Williamson, "the most beautiful news woman in the world" # That's a hard one to gauge 😊.

Don't particularly enjoy Natalie and Tiffany's sermons on OAN and Newsmax but it's a free country... maybe.

There're a few guys who bullied me that I'd like to beat to a pulp, which isn't as bad as gut-shots which came to mind first. I shouldn't hold a grudge that long and pretty sure one's dead already. # Primal instincts suck.

When knowledge means connections, we have a problem - Javier?... Davos

Do we still need mutual assured destruction between us and adversarial powers? Harkens back to George Washington's warnings about permanent alliances etc... Wish we could be a more neutral super power with a; laser/titanium dome, hypersonic defense and a policy of minding our own business... # naïve? Me thinks it's like the right to bear arms in case somebody breaks into your home, attacks you on the street etc. At least you'd have half a chance, without one you may not.

Don't want to give up humor, just want to stop insult and self-deprecating varieties... hope that leaves something in the bag.

Als ze ons tot slaaf willen maken, wat is er dan logischer dan Amerika te Afrikaniseren? 'Sportboeken', vulgariteit, de hoogste percentages van; geweld, materialisme, bijgeloof, afgodendienst ooit, kinderen opgevoed door het dorp, nieuwe 'educatieve normen', Nikes... noem maar op, ze hebben het! That's not to say they're not; strong, brave etc. and deserve equal rights but no more... looting be damned.

Ham, Canaan's curse? Wonder if it means that like others, they had a bad reputation... Also, were Ham and Canaan – Canaanites, Africans or something else and if the former did the writer(s) of Genesis 9:20–27, want to promote and 'justify' the genocide of said people?

There are many opposing forces, cabals etc. for whom the end justifies the means in fact, for just about everyone, there's a situation where the end justifies the means.

Has the US constitution been subverted, has it changed over time per the will of the people? If the latter is the case, can it be changed again to reverse the “much abused” 14th amendment which automatically qualifies you to be a U.S. citizen if you are born in the US, or one of its territories. Many would say The 14th amendment has been abused both by those coming across the southern border who are often poor, or those flying in from around the world who are often wealthy.

Many had their heads in the sand when the Patriot Act was rolled out, which it turns out surveilled Americans as much as terrorists. Today many who said, 'if you have nothing to hide then why worry about it', have changed their minds.

Today we're probably surveilled even more by Google, Facebook etc. and many say, 'it's just for advertising so why worry?', ... will they sing that tune in the future.

May not be rich but have equity.

It's not how can I respect you because of the way you are... it's I respect you even though I don't understand you.

Those who would destroy our society and replace it with something else may believe in perfection, utopias or at least in considerable improvement over what we have. I think only the last of these is remotely possible so they should proceed with utmost caution cause of the possibility of something worse taking over. Peaceful, truthful reform is better than violent revolution.

'I think putting the Indians on reservations was a despicable part of history because it basically was attacking their souls' ... Robert Redford

Forced removals, being placed on reservations, starvation by killing tens of millions of Bison, attempts at forced assimilation... were they utterly reprehensible crimes, acts of total war or the almost inevitable price of 300 years of conflict between incompatible peoples or at least incompatible ways of life. One side was industrialized people the other technologically less advanced and therefore vulnerable. How does the European American's subjugation of the native peoples compare to that of other conquering empires throughout history? Regardless, there's no excuse but it is representative of human history and behavior.

Who lived in the Black Hills before the Sioux?

Early-Modern human activity. The Arikara arrived by AD 1500, followed by the Cheyenne, Crow, Kiowa and Arapaho. The Lakota (also known as Sioux) arrived from Minnesota in the 18th century and drove out the other tribes, who moved west. They claimed the land, which they called Ħe Sápa (Black Mountains)... Wikipedia.

Men conquer men to "win" women but women know men lose interest so they attempt to conquer; nature, men and each other to hold on to what they have. Their goal in my opinion is to have a family and keep it intact. A man's goal is similar but historically he's wanted his family's and "people's" bloodline to thrive and prevail, while the woman isn't nearly as devoted to his bloodline and will seek mates outside of the clan, tribe or nation if they are perceived as powerful and the most 'likely to succeed.' The pastor said, "the most important thing for women is security", and it seems to take many forms... from financial to physical, impacting; courts, policing, wars and family affairs.

Een jonge vrouw versus en een oude vrouw... je wilt ze om verschillende redenen en als ze je willen, hebben ze misschien ook verschillende redenen ... c'est la vie!

If you want to make sure someone sees what you're doing, pretend that you're hiding it from them. The opposite's also true... 'flaunt' what you don't want them to see 😊.

The difference is we'll gladly do it for free, ejaculation's so pleasurable, there's no need for a quid pro quo 😬.

Joe Rogan said the N-word and his career was jeopardized because of that and befriending AJ. Many whites have used that word, at least under the breath, and I think many blacks have said, 'white mother*($)#@', honkies or crackers but will peeps admit it? unless they have to, peeps don't tell the truth unless it's in their interest ~. It's a human thing and people of all races are subject to it.

Jesus is the miracle man but not buying into the proposal that just because certain people are on every commercial they’re our brothers instead of distant cousins and not buying into giving away the farm bit, even though that might be what Jesus wanted cause I believe in the historical Jesus not the hysterical one and the historical one may or may not be the God of the universe. Also looking at the church’s imperfect history, Jesus’ words about not changing a jot or tittle of the OT, freedoms guaranteed by our Constitution, history, science, archaeology and who the folks promoting income redistribution are – just have to wonder bout the whole dang thing...

Feel free to give yours away but leave us alone. If the average peep’s IQ can be lowered by X points and our interests moved further in the direction of idiocracy, the herd’ll be easier for the 0.1% to manage. So, who are the 10th of one percent? Me thinks it’s the usual suspects, a diverse group, with some pops over and others under rep’d. The latter we can mention, the former we mustn’t.

Regarding posts on the family thread, they're over the top, hypocritical and lies. Told myself twas to keep the peace but it's mostly for selfish reasons... am I 'only human.' Or's that a cop-out too?

Regarding women, many things bear repeating & some don't ♥

'The tool kit has greatly expanded... breakthrough infections occur and boosters make a big difference regarding severe illness... lots of people will be protected either from vaccines or natural immunity... a lot of this is politically not scientifically driven'...Dr. Chris Breyer (paraphrased), reporting from John's Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health. Live from Cape Town, he's talking to 'Bloomberg Surveillance', about the Covid subvariants that are emerging. Thoughts; 'Bloomberg School of Public Health' is a tool. Did Covid come from China and was it on purpose 50/50 chance. Big pharmaceutical companies; should we be grateful they have vaccines and treatments or upset that they were profiting from them? I'm grateful but suspicious that they would like to make this a 'cash cow' for as long as possible.

Ukraine and Russia...Klaus Schwab, the OG, mainstream media ~ Are Nazis and Neocons bedfellows who'll ultimately and naturally clash? Was our country formed by racists? By today's standards almost 'to a man' they undoubtedly were. Even the John Adams cohort would be considered racists by today's standards. I turn from OAN to news Max hoping to see Ms. Williamson the "most beautiful anchor on TV", of course beauty is a function of nature and make up. She's not there so I go to Bloomberg hoping to see Kaylie Leinz but all I get are commercials. # Kraemer & Harp fill the gap nicely 😊

Biden probably can't fix the economy but he can enter a war which might help him 'unite Americans' and save the midterms but God knows what else might happen. Looking at the list of 30 NATO member nations, I wonder if the neocon globalists are right to surround and poke the bear... # zealotry.

I think Americans of every ilk will fight and most of them bravely, which will only increase their demands... if we win do we still lose.

Poland which borders; Ukraine, Russia and Belarus reportedly may supply Ukraine with man carried 36 pound anti-aircraft missiles, capable of taking down Supersonic aircraft at up to 13,000 feet. I note this because it could lead to Russia upping the ante and using even deadlier weapon systems in a cascading, ever escalating conflict, eventually leading to you know what ~ nukes. Does mutual assured destruction go out the window in order for our president to keep his party in power and Putin to save face? "To Jaw-Jaw is better than to War-War" ...Winston Churchill Dare I say it... we are completely different animals 🐒 🐒 🙄.

We're both probably from earth, not Venus or Mars.

Lincoln and Zelenskyy may be cut from the same cloth, both tried to do the 'right thing' and wreaked havoc on their countries. In both cases might it had been better if they have waited a few years? Slavery would most likely have ended peacefully in the US in a few years, as it did in most countries. Instead over 600,000 Americans died, and the federal government became a military juggernaut at the expense of individual states and individual rights. Putin will 'retire' in a few years, so was serious consideration given to waiting him out, instead of giving him an excuse to make war? It could end soon or with the devastation of Ukraine and maybe something worse. In hindsight will some wish that they had 'promised' to be neutral, as with so many promises politicians make they could've walked it back when Putin passes from the scene in a few years. Why don't we listen to what George Washington said in his farewell address... aka remain neutral. Why not maintain Mutual Assured Destruction, hopefully deterring attacks from aggressors. Instead we're further empowering the New Woke Order, who will take advantage of any crisis to strangle us further. God help us ~ I hope this is His plan... otherwise humanity could be in for one hell of a ride, praying for peace and divine, not supernatural intervention.

'The Meta-verse is full out rejection of God's creation of man. It believes man can do it better'... The Second Fall of Man/The FirstTV (paraphrased). # Dangerous.

Another reason that women may put on makeup and spend time on their hair is they want people to focus on their face not their figure.

Who if anyone is behind the intermarriage movement? What better way to subdue a free and intellectually curious people than to encourage them to intermarry with people who may be less interested in such things. Maybe it's completely normal and organic but I smell a skunk. Maybe God wants us to be units of consumption, fixated on sports books and gratuitous violence aka TV etc. and maybe not. We seem enthralled and agreeable to this narrative presented on a silver-platter backed by the threat of looting and "Big Brother." As I face my own honesty dilemma over $1,200 that showed up unexpectedly in my company bank account from a customer I haven't worked for in two years 😊, I think of the following. Op de huwelijksconferentie zei de dominee dat het belangrijkste voor een vrouw veiligheid is waar ik nooit veel over had nagedacht. Achteraf gezien, toen er geld op het spel stond, hebben vrouwen van wie ik heb geweten dat ze dingen hebben gedaan die me verrasten. Ik geloof dat het voor hun veiligheid en die van hun geliefden was. Mannen daarentegen doen zulke dingen om vrouwen aan te trekken.

Pastor said that the most important thing for a woman is safety, which I'd never thought much about. In retrospect, when money's at stake, women I've known have done the same "things" men do and that surprised me. I believe twas for the "safety" of them and their loved ones. Men are more likely to do such things to attract women. # Lots of moving parts 😊.

Heaven? A little less pain would be nice... it would be enough 🙏.

Not asking for miracles but hey go head! 😊

What do women want? You would have to ask them. What do men want? It varies but it's probably more complex than women think. # That's okay... let's not complicate things further 😊

Watching Abramowitz interview William Lee from the Milken institute about Xi on Bloomberg with John Ferris piping in, reminds me that we look different, want many of the same things and some things that clash... add Arabs and others into the cauldron, stir in the Super Bowl halftime show and ask, "can't we all just get along" ... The once resplendent tomb KV5 in the Valley of the Kings, was Ramses the Second's. Tomb KV 55 probably belongs to Akhenaten the 'heretic' pharaoh. Its inscriptions refer to the 'evil one' and his burial was meager at best. His sarcophagus was surrounded by 'magic stones' with inscriptions on the inside intended to protect the world from him. Ordinarily a pharaoh sarcophagus was surrounded with magic stones with inscriptions on the outside intended to keep evil away... hmm.

Leaning on the wall tween tub & shower, determine that if I fall, should “aim” for the shower door not the tub both would hurt! 😬

Yahoo Finance ask's the guest 'what should peeps do with their $100,000 bonuses?' Guess some Yahoo viewers are 'affluent.' Switching to Bloomberg, the other business channel that streams free round here, there're colorful graphs and charts on the screen behind Tom Keane and wonder, do we want peeps to get paid tons of money or do we want algorithms to rule our lives? Not sure bout the money but don't want man or machine ruling us... just keep the planes on time 🕒 # and in the air.

Maybe women aren't so much sexual as they're sexy. ~ Is it mostly a means to an end? As in make a baby or keep their mate? Meanwhile, for men it's typically for pleasure! I've always wondered about the female orgasm, including multiple ones. How do they compare to ejaculation which in my opinion is the most pleasurable thing a man 'physically' experiences? Is it comparing apples to oranges or a direct comparison?

They say CEOs and presidents are often sociopaths but there can be good and bad ones. George Washington for example was imperfect but IMO good. Trump, Biden and the current crop? God only knows.

The Bloomberg guest says, 'incompetence is going to be replaced by wisdom.' Hope he's right cause financially and politically there are some real boneheads minding the shop. Always have been and they come from all; ilks, persuasions and countries.

Journalists are supposed to be an important non-biased part of society but those on both sides of the divide believe they're saving the world ... they'll do anything to get their 'point across.'

Domestic violence is a bell curve, there's probably more in poor and low IQ populations but it also occurs too much in intelligent, affluent populations... and probably doesn't vary much as we suppose. Relatedly, if you dare bring up the topic of intelligence related to domestic violence you'd better do it in the "approved manner" via the ex-sports framework... otherwise it's a taboo no, no.

While discussing why Africa "lags" on NPR and it's every bit as predictable as you might expect. Problems are all attributed to the slave trade, imperialism, being new countries etc. Despite wanting to listen to the show on Africa I had to change the station it was just too much of a whitewash...

Smart TVs have impressive algorithms. When you "attempt" to change channels there's a lag while they decide what ads they'll show you next. They determine what ads you're susceptible to and balance that with what their producers and sponsors want you to see, which is a combo of marketing and 'social re-education'... also impressed with improvements to autocorrect but voice rec's still a wreck.

Sitting on Gulf Boulevard bench waiting for someone photogenic to pass by. It finally happened but seems morning's not the best time. # Need their beauty sleep 🧘.

Walking route includes house on Mockingbird where a lady from a nice waterfront house said, "none of your Fuc&ing business", when I asked her if the house across the street was vacant. A couple days later I juveniley retaliated by littering paper from my pocket on her lawn... wish I thought of it sooner and nastier...hope the Man upstairs forgives me 🙏.

Doesn't make it feel much better.

I'm trying to think of anything good that Lincoln did. Yes, his war kept the union together but it was at the cost of about 700,000? American lives, and he put us under a federal iron dome. Prior to that the states who were more independent could've maintained neutrality and opposed the occupation which has occurred since then. We might've been able to heed Washington's advice to avoid permanent foreign alliances, instead the occupation gradually turned us into a possible sacrificial lamb. Is the same thing happening in Ukraine where a reportedly brave president, who is unlike the population, sacrificing the Ukrainian people for his ilks goals.

Just as babies get their way by crying, adults get their way by ranting, whining or whatever.

“The US spends 500 times more on defense than it does on public health” ... Dr John Torres/Dr. Thomas Freeman (paraphrased). Our defense strategy seems to be to rule the world or at least control it.

Ukraine may triumph or at least survive and remain independent if this turns into a proxy or guerrilla war. It may take years like our Civil War, Iraq, Afghanistan and Vietnam. There will likely be great casualties and devastation in the process and what comes out of it God only knows. In the US it was a stronger central government in Ukraine it could be another ‘success’ for the globalists. I still think neutrality should have been explored.

“We will defend every inch of NATO territory... no one should down our determination” ... Anthony Blinken.

Blinken... rhymes with Lincoln... hmm.

Never met anybody who wasn't hypocritical at times. Of course some more than others, yours truly included. Even GW, there was no cherry tree and what about the whiskey rebellion... was he trying to corner the market. As wrong as hypocrisy is, might it be something of a survival instinct that we struggle with? Along with that is judging others, me thinks we all do it ~ some just more privately than others.

Slower I work, faster it gets done ~ be it barn or book. # Doesn't mean it gets done right 🙄

Some of us are good old fashion worker bees for whatever cause we've accepted or been brought up in. That's fine if you want to. Haven't found my cause celeb yet though Christianity is the closest but there's so many interpretations and twists that I haven't jumped on anyone's bandwagon yet.

Weight loss is a function of caloric intake which is related to portion control, efficiency and eating etCetera and we are far too efficient.

I'm not rushing because I realize that people want me to constantly rush including my beloved ones and when I rush one time it's not enough, you have to rush constantly in the direction people tell you to but I won't it's zero sum and know when.

It's taking 65 years to realize that I can't make other people happy including her and I can't keep the pace that she wants. I'm not a worker bee not sure about her so when she moves that fast I say I can't move that fast and think to myself I definitely can't move that fast in good conscience if I think I'm doing it for somebody else's age agenda. So the next time somebody tells you to hurry up don't.

Then I hear Pat Robertson's son Gordon praying and it strikes a chord / he says say this, say that, say the name Jesus. It is a very popular invitation to be saved and it's very cool but I wonder does he believe that Constantine saw a cross in the sky and does he believe the council of Nicaea was not influenced perhaps even unduly by the emperor? I wish someone would and could answer such questions "satisfactorily."

Respectfully~ I wish you well, wish you the best aka health, happiness and prosperity but I may not wish all your dreams come true... because it depends on what they are.

I don't necessarily oppose your agenda, nor do I support it ... it's a free country.

Freedom of religion as much as possible and freedom from it as much as possible for those who want that.

In the garage looking at Crosses and the price of tin when scooter starts barking his fool head off. He keeps it up and I say 'don't worry scooter they're gone' then looked out the garage door crack and there's no vehicle. Start walking to the door if it's the Mormon girls it'll be OK. Instead see a man woman walking away with what looks like tracks in their hands... oh well 😊.

Not sure I believe Jesus is the God of the universe but do think at the very least, He has the inside track with the Man upstairs, He's bonafide, there's power in his name and I ask him to intercede on my behalf as humbly as I possibly can.

Would not fight for you even though you're unlikely to ask, because your leaders seem to be for subversion of the Constitution and you seem to; acquiesce, not care or support that.

We can only speculate whether or not Russia would've invaded Ukraine if they had conceded to the demand that they be neutral but what about Donboss and the other breakaway Regions?

Scrolling through Pluto's live TV guide and reading the two line descriptors for programs on everything from BNC and Newsmax, to the young Turks I see totally different agendas for America. Can they coexist peacefully? People are strident about their worldviews and in many cases determined to impose them on the world.

Strange  fellows anyway 😐.

The Africanization of America... I see it across all platforms of society.

hmmm

The comedian said it well, her push-up bra is her armor and when I see extravagant eye make up on some women I wonder why would they do that ? Then I think, maybe they're trying to gain an advantage, aka going to war with the army they have , making the best of the cards they're dealt etc. and the there's nothing wrong with that.

'I have no issue with us sending arms to Ukraine'... Dana Loesch. Who's fault is it that we were wake on Russia? Those who blame Biden and those who blame Trump will keep blaming them even if our cities become ashes... God forbid.

'The stiffer the resistance they (the Ukrainians), the more willing the Russians are to use more extreme bombing of civilian areas'...Arieh Kovler, Israeli political analyst.

I wonder if sending arms will make things better or worse for the Ukrainian people in the long run.

Time will tell if the Ukrainians should've agreed to the Minsk protocols and declared themselves neutral and unwilling to ever join NATO etc?, as opposed to being a; Soros, money laundering, globalist client state as some assert... how would the people have faired best?

With their high tech and industrial assets they could be a large eastern Switzerland ... and both countries banks are 'renowned,'

On 'Newsy', Christina a Ukrainian mom praises Zelinsky's leadership, "I think that our president at this moment is becoming the hero of our nation," Other Ukrainians who didn't think much of this man who went from, "comic actor to candidate to president", now praise his leadership and bravery. God help them all.

Net zoals de bevolking van Oekraïne collateral damage is voor 'hun' inspanningen, zo zouden wij ...

God helpe ons... ze hebben het weer gedaan.

Not saying I can't move that fast, saying don't wanna move fast for a several reasons. Everything from pinching that back nerve, to likelihood that whoever is telling me to rush will keep telling me to rush, mostly on their behalf... no matter how they parse it. Tired of being someone's means to an end ~ how about you? ☺

Not an expert but guessing sex is more of a means to an end for women compared to men for whom it's mostly pure pleasure.

How could there not be other intelligent lifeforms in the universe if it is infinite and if our universe is part of some thing even more infinite a.k.a. the Multiverse. These are concepts that blow the human mind and perhaps God did this on purpose. Einstein, Newton any genius your name hadn't an inkling of what's going on beyond the realm that we are aware of... nor do any of us despite the BS. # Heck we don't understand this one.

Can you be a neutral country and send a message by voting for a war crime tribunal against Putin? I think so.

“Is Zelinsky naïve or calculating? It’s become a ritual. He shows up before Parliaments. He asks for a no fly zone, they give him a standing ovation but say no. It’s scripted almost to the point of pathetic. There will have to be a diplomatic solution, otherwise the country will be destroyed and thousands more civilians killed... Russia’s terms are harsher now than they were before the war...who will pay for the reconstruction of Ukraine...who will guarantee Ukraine’s security...he has asked Israel” ...WION (paraphrased)

A political solution from the get go may have saved thousands of lives, were the people of Ukraine duped?

Many if not most Americans might think George Washington’s advice to avoid foreign entanglements and permanent alliances is outdated but when I remember mark twain’s quote about information and disinformation I disagree. The Russians and Ukrainians routinely; distort, exaggerate and lie to promote their case to the world. Case in point; this morning Russia bombs a shopping center in Kyiv killing eight. They claim Ukrainians were using it to store rocket propelled grenade ammunition and firing multi rocket launchers from between buildings nearby ~ this according to WION.

We have smart people in our government saying one thing or another like don’t sanction Russian oil because it will upset the markets. Are they doing the right thing in that case and in other areas? I hope so but they’re not doing what George Washington said aka “avoid permanent foreign alliances” etc.

I think he would have us neutral bastion akin to Switzerland but much larger.

Don't want to glorify Washington too much as he was not perfect by any stretch but he did say his slaves would be freed upon the death of his wife and Martha freed them almost immediately not waiting until her death.

Washington's treatment of the Indians was also poor but had they aligned themselves with the British against the Americans? And if so do they bear some responsibility for his harsh treatment of them.

Japan felt compelled to sneak attack the United States at Pearl Harbor because of our oil sanctions on them, I wonder what Russia and China are thinking vis-à-vis our financial sanctions against them?

You go to war with the army you have God forbid... and you hang a picture with the nails at hand.

Another reason to move slowly is I'm not a worker bee, and honey-do lists never end... why hurry? 🍯

If I move slowly enough sometimes I can catch my back before it stabs me in the you know wheat.

That was certainly a superfluous prayer “Jesus get me through the light before it turns red”, and I’m not even in a hurry 😊.

For the foreseeable future I may not vote. # Who cares 😊

Does anybody else think Dire Straits front man looks like Jerry Seinfeld?

Were the residents of Hiroshima and Nagasaki the first people to be raptured?

There are a lot of things we shouldn’t do but we do them anyway. We miss the mark and world leaders are no different but the consequences can be catastrophic when they miss.

It’s St. Patrick’s Day and Newsmax, Wake Up America’s hook to its audience and tell to those who read between the lines, “Yesterday Biden approved another $800 million in military aid for Ukraine, is that enough?” ... the anchor asked. Two congresswomen are quoted next, “I would go and fight for Ukraine myself”, said the first one, unless she actually does it then her words speak nonsensically for themselves. “We should send our troops there (paraphrased)” said the second lady... does she mean her children or someone else’s? Putin is a war criminal and the Russians are very very but that will not save Ukraine and perhaps others. Zelenskyy to Congress; 'remember Pearl Harbor and 911', but nothing about not negotiating till thousands died, which was Putin's fault but possibly avoidable.

Everything's relative even a shovel...

Invoking Pearl Harbor and 911 are pretty obvious what isn't as obvious is our financial blockades may be what contribute to starting WWII, like our oil blockade of Japan may have contributed to their sneak attack.

Butterfly bombs are released by planes and rockets and open up like a cluster bomb delivering dozens or 100 mines to the 'intended target.'

When Russia starts bombing convoys of weapons coming into Ukraine it will become very difficult for those patriots. Combine that with the possible closure of Black Sea ports and Ukraine could be in serious trouble and the west will have to decide on what to do next.

I imagine we're already wargaming that as are the Russians and Ukrainians.

Reportedly only 123 of Washington's 317 slaves Washington were freed and that was to occur after Martha died. Were Wes Ford's parents George Washington and his black bed partner Venus?

Excerpts from, “America’s Black Holocaust Museum”, whose slogan is “Bringing Our History to Light”

“And how many of these 10.7 million Africans were shipped directly to North America? Only about 388,000. That’s right: a tiny percentage. In fact, the overwhelming percentage of the African slaves were shipped directly to the Caribbean and South America; Brazil received 4.86 million Africans alone! Some scholars estimate that another 60,000 to 70,000 Africans ended up in the United States after touching down in the Caribbean first, so that would bring the total to approximately 450,000 Africans who arrived in the United States over the course of the slave trade.

Incredibly, most of the 42 million members of the African-American community descend from this tiny group of less than half a million Africans.”

<https://www.abhmuseum.org/how-many-africans-were-really-taken-to-the-u-s-during-the-slave-trade/>

In the Civil War over 600,000 white Americans died fighting over the perpetuation of the “peculiar institution”, which almost certainly would’ve ended of its own accord more peacefully in a few years, as it did almost everywhere else in the world. So if the above figures are correct more than one white American died for every slaves brought to America.

“Incredibly, most of the 42 million members of the African-American community descend from this tiny group of less than half a million Africans.”

That's relevant because like blooming flowers, physical beauty peaks and eventually and gradually declines while inner beauty remains.

“Here's what I would like to ask every Christian to do. It's time to pray ~ we need to pray for divine intervention... bible says the heart of the king is in the hand of the Lord, so that's our king or our president Biden, president Biden, that would be Russia's president Putin that would be president Zelinsky of Ukraine and others in positions of leadership. We need to pray for these people and pray that God guides and direct their steps and that they make the right decision because if any of these people make the wrong decision we could have a conflict on a scale like we have never seen before. The Bible says don't worry about anything but pray about everything, The Bible is not saying we should be concerned, it's not saying we shouldn't be alarmed but worrying doesn't help. So tell your children to be calm, remind them that God is in control and pray with them. Let's commit this to the Lord and ask the Lord to intervene bring peace. Are certain genomes more violent than others? Statistics may offer evidence to that effect, if not proof.

The other question if we're allowed to broach it, is are they 10% more violent or 10 times more? It may vary depending on the category... such as domestic violence vs gun violence. It's relevant that every genome is too violent for its own good and it's reasonable to be allowed to suggest:

1. Avoid statistically more violent peeps.
2. Study and/or speculate about why some genomes may be more violent:* Fast twitch muscles & brains?
3. Offer assistance if you want.
4. Don't accept excuses for violence.

The US and the Ukraine may have something in common...OG and OM.

Does that imply similar fates?

Most people want to be part of the solution, not part of the problem.

Problem is we can't seem to admit that we might fall into both categories. We also can't seem to agree on what the problems are and what're the solutions. Compounding that, is we also tend to play the blame game.

“Rape during the occupation of Germany

As Allied troops entered and occupied German territory during the later stages of World War II, mass rapes of women took place both in connection with combat operations and during the subsequent occupation of Germany. Scholars agree that the majority of the rapes were committed by Soviet occupation troops.[1] The wartime rapes were followed by decades of silence.[2][3][4][5]

Territorial changes and occupational zones of Nazi Germany after its defeat. Includes the front-line along the Elbe from which U.S. troops withdrew in July 1945

According to historian Antony Beevor, whose books were banned in 2015 from some Russian schools and colleges, NKVD (Soviet secret police) files have revealed that the leadership knew what was happening, but did little to stop it.[6] It was often rear echelon units who committed the rapes.[7] According to professor Oleg Rzheshevsky, "4,148 Red Army officers and many privates were punished for committing atrocities".[8] The exact number of German women and girls raped by Soviet troops during the war and occupation is uncertain, but historians estimate their numbers are likely in the hundreds of thousands, and possibly as many as two million.[9]

Soviet troops Edit

Sexual violence was committed by the armies of the Western Allies and the Red Army as their troops fought their way into the Third Reich and during the period of occupation.[10] Mass rape by Soviet soldiers first began during the Battle of Romania and during the Budapest offensive in Hungary.[9] On the territory of Nazi Germany, it began on 21 October 1944 when troops of the Red Army crossed the bridge over the Angerapp creek (marking the Germany–Poland border) and committed the Nemmersdorf massacre before they were beaten back a few hours later.

The majority of the assaults were committed in the Soviet occupation zone; estimates of the numbers of German women raped by Soviet soldiers have ranged up to 2 million.[11][12][13][14] According to historian William Hitchcock, in many cases women were the victims of repeated rapes, some as many as 60 to 70 times.[15] At least 100,000 women are believed to have been raped in Berlin, based on surging abortion rates in the following months and contemporary hospital reports,[13] with an estimated 10,000 women dying in the aftermath.[16] Female deaths in connection with the rapes in Germany, overall, are estimated at 240,000.[2][17] Antony Beevor describes it as the "greatest phenomenon of mass rape in history" and concludes that at least 1.4 million women were raped in East Prussia, Pomerania and Silesia alone.[18] According to the Soviet war correspondent Natalya Gesse, Soviet soldiers raped German females from eight to eighty years old. Soviet and Polish women were not spared either.[19][20][21] When General Tsygankov, head of the political department of the First Ukrainian Front, reported to Moscow the mass rape of Soviet women deported to Germany for forced labour, he recommended that the women be prevented from describing their ordeal on their return to Russia.[22]

When the Yugoslav Partisan politician Milovan Djilas complained about rapes in Yugoslavia, Joseph Stalin reportedly stated that he should "understand it if a soldier who has crossed thousands of kilometres through blood and fire and death has fun with a woman or takes some trifle".[23] On another occasion, when told that Red Army soldiers sexually maltreated German refugees, he reportedly said: "We lecture our soldiers too much; let them have their initiative." [24] Nevertheless, there are no surviving records to prove these statements.[24]

Konstantin Rokossovsky issued order No 006 in an attempt to direct "the feelings of hatred at fighting the enemy on the battlefield", which had little effect.[19] There were also a few arbitrary attempts to exert authority. For example, the commander of one rifle division is said to have "personally shot a lieutenant who was lining up a group of his men before a German woman spreadeagled on the ground".[19]..."

Would like to live with people who agree with our original constitution with an amendment that there would be no slavery and equal voting rights for all but not necessarily universal suffrage. That would not be acceptable to a large number of people and that's fine with me... problem is they're pretty much in the catbird seat.

The BiPAP machine I used for three weeks seemed to be retraining me, it forced me to breathe with a new pattern. It's supposed to be a smart machine but it seems more like a ventilator. Now four days after quitting it, I'm having trouble taking a deep breath, and wonder if the BiPAPA makers wants me to become dependent on their machine and it's AI? But like when I had Covid, half a deep breath is better than none at all and better than panicking over it.

Not only is it possible we could be knocked out by a hypersonic first strike by Russia, China and maybe North Korea, but if they arrive with tanks and aircraft we may not have the Javelins and Stingers the patriots would need. Before we “allow” World War III to begin to save Ukraine we might want to figure out how to stop hypersonic missiles and/or add enough to our arsenal so we have a serious deterrent. We may be facing opponents who don't give a shit about their peoples lives or are willing to sacrifice huger numbers of them if they go to war with us... they've done such things before. Russia with their straw dog of existential threat being justification for first strike use of nukes and China, whose Chairman Mao's said the could afford to lose hundreds of millions of people in a war against America, and he may be President Xi's model.

Not saying ‘they’ have a conspiracy to replace us, but their leaders might, and people tend to follow their leaders. They're taking advantage of people's age-old instinct to be fruitful and multiply... meanwhile unfortunately, we've ‘woke up’ and decided to give away the farm... since we don't deserve it anymore. Many of us are smart enough to be susceptible to guilt trips but lack the common sense to figure out it's bullshit. It's worse than bullshit it's entrapment... The bigger the smile the bigger the lie. #NothingWrongWithSmiles but they can be disarming.

Their leaders and many followers want; revenge, reparations and to replace us. Peeps follow leaders and when bolstered by silver tongues and big smiles we fall for it too... when we don't, they use the racism card, followed if “necessary” by riots, burning cities and looting. Of course, they say everything's our fault and they've been victimized by us since the beginning of time. If you study history and learn the true history of slavery you might see evidence that many peoples including theirs were complicit. What will be our fault, will be the collapse of our society if we let them takeover?

There are many other things I'd like to write but right now I keep them to myself and the man upstairs... apparently, I say too much anyway.

Reform, fix what's broken but do not tear America apart, and for God sake don't replace it with Bolshevism, or any other abomination.

So what is a "person of color", is there a cut-off shade wise and does it follow that the lighter you are, the less you deserve, while person of color are entitled to huge benefits in the form of taking taxpayer's nest eggs... funny thing is, POC's have their own caste system based on skin tone, with lighter skinned POC's generally holding elevated status.

Seems to me the definition of POC is fluid. If you embrace the BLM, Critical Race theory agendas, you can call yourself a person of color no matter what shade you are... Like other Saul Alinsky type tricks, they want fluidity, they want be able to twist things to their advantage... they don't want it to ever end or be fixed. An aside...there's a book called The Anarchist Handbook... written by Ukrainian-American Michael Malice who was born in Lviv, Ukraine and... who knows might know President Volodymyr Zelensky.

It's one thing to oppose hereditary kings and called "aristocrats", it's another to destroy the common man and woman's freedom in the process.

Whether it's critical race theory or gender dysphoria or anything else some people don't want to "solve" anything, they want to use red herrings as tool to destroy America. Instead of trying to improve, or come up with new "treatments", they may suggest cutting off breasts and penises to make peeps "well."

Through money and mis-information they've co-opted many professional organizations and instructed their 'experts' to call us nefarious if we disagree with what they have determined to be best for us cattle.

Both sides in the Ukraine war want us to jump on their bandwagon via incredible stories and exaggerations. They know that once onboard we'll be reluctant to leave because of the human desire to save face. We're more likely to shut up than change sides and they know it.

The fellow travelers and fifth column aren't just them whoever they are the demographics will be widespread... anyone can be duped.

Don't know if it's part of a plan but Zelensky in addition to hurting his nation might be hurting his people and I don't just mean the Ukrainians. On the other hand, Alex Jones' hands may be tied because he doesn't want to offend his children, considering their maternal heritage.

After two very close calls yesterday one with the dump truck I realize I need to slow down... but it's not proving easy.

Don't want to go there because I'm uncomfortable and don't support Africanization... I have a different worldview. I wish them well but don't wish all their dreams to come true because their leader's dreams may involve the end of us, or the end of us as a free people. Like most peeps, they seem likely to follow their leaders until it's too late...

The demographics might just work out...

Hi so and so, might means hi good looking but I can't say it 😊

Getting back to African-ization just as there are many great and kind Black people, there are a large number of whites who are fellow travelers with BLM and similar movements.

Increasingly after doing something dumb, I don't call myself a "stupid you know what", I'm saying Lord help me, or Lord thank you that it wasn't worse.

Thank you Lord that the latest elbow was minor slowing down really helps.

One great big lesson from the Ukraine war is they shouldn't of given up their 2000 nukes years ago based on Russia and the West's security guarantees.

We really don't know about each other until the moment of truth

I don't think that any Homo sapiens are sub-human, I think they're different and different in enough that I don't want them to replace us. # Now who would want to do that? ☺ Not supposed to say it but these differences can be physical, mental and/or intellectual. Also not supposed to say there might be a connection between intellect, mental illness and physical prowess between populations.

Not supposed to say it but me thinks wisdom's also unequally distributed, with those in the middle having the most. Geniuses are smart enough to pull off white collar crimes easier than the rest of society, which leads to more greed and avarice instead of self-examination and repentance... therefore wisdom is sacrificed for more worldly pleasures. Physically strong people also may dismiss wisdom in favor of strong-arm tactics to get what they want but they also favor fraud, lying smiles and silver-tongued deviling. Those in the middle IQ or muscle-wise are also greedy but have a bit less ability to rip other's off via white collar or strongarm crimes.

Life's funny and it's a strange world if it's not a hostile power threatening our survival it's Blue Jays divebombing me when I walk out of the house because of where they've built a nest ... not putting up with them, moles, wasps... etc.

Plain and simple ~ things just aren't working out between some of us and them and we don't want to be forced into a round hole ~ maybe we're too square ☺

Taking the laundry out of the machine, think to myself, "I'm old... don't wanna spend my golden years turning laundry right side out." ☺

Whether it's Steve Wilco, Jerry Spring or Maury Povich's show, we "learn" that cheating goes on in every demographic... some may have higher rates as statistics might bear out. # We'll be told it's society's fault, not theirs.

The same is true of violent crime and white color crime etc. although the bell curves differ, shouldn't we aspire to the best not the worst.

They're basically different enough that I don't want them taking over and replacing us but most people don't seem to mind... As evidenced on TV, blacks may be featured more than other demographic even though they're a smaller one. In the 30 on second since my last text, commercial after commercial featured black or mixed-race couples ... guess they're giving the people what they want either... or something else is going on.

Kind of like the polls where people think X percent of the US population is transexual while it's actually a fraction of that percentage. They're creating a narrative and we're stupid enough to lap it up.

Are the American people being duped by an occupied government, and were the Ukrainians duped by theirs. Tragically they're reaping the whirl wind... God help us all.

Going back to the nutshell... maybe it's the Book of Revelation, US Constitution and Washington's farewell address that matters. Would the Founding Fathers recommend getting involved in Ukraine? Is the Ukraine/Russia war part of the lead up to what the book of Revelation predicts? Did John of Patmos see the future some 2000 years ago via God, quantum physics or whatever? The aforementioned may be spurious, outdated and open to interpretation, or who knows... they might just stand the test of time.

"This is what happens when you put experts in charge of everything ~ common sense goes to hell... The government has no right to lock us up because of their Covid policies" ... Glenn Beck (paraphrased)

My concern is America may be sacrificed by the occupied government as Ukraine might be by its. I am hopeful though that John of Patmos' synopsis is true. Putin's a monster and the OGs unleashed him... what does that make Zelensky?

On the other hand our leaders surely know about hypersonic nukes so are they; bluffing, daring or secretly prepared?

Youtubers are literally incentivized to scare you so are the big news outfits" ... I can guarantee that the person making you feel like that is on the other side of the computer screen feeling pretty good about the ad revenue that they're racking up, trying to come up with the next story that's gonna keep you feeling bad and coming back for more ~ none of us need that... 2 is 1 (Youtuber)

Suspicion and distrust are part of a woman's biological imperative... at least related to her mate. She needs security, help and resources to raise her kids. Historically the odds haven't been on her side... there are shysters everywhere.

I hope that I'm wrong" ... Alexander Mourcours.

If he's right that the Ukrainian army is being obliterated in the east and that this will be a world war one Battle of the Somme scenario, costing Ukraine the flower of its youth will they turn on Zelensky and Company?

"Regime change against Russia and then regime change against China that is the plan, Biden said as much" ... Alex Cristoforo (per Biden's speech in Warsaw?)

"It was all decided by a small group of neocon staffers in the White House so the speech was clearly prepared by the same tight group of people who are driving the policy and control the president because he basically does whatever he's told to do... this tiger team... that's not to say the United States, let's say the Neocons in United States. This group of powerful people who have managed to gain control of the US government, this is their plan they're going for broke because this is their last desperate throw to stop the collapse of the globalist system or at least system the kind of the neocon project that they been dedicated to ever since the Soviet Union collapsed 30 years ago" ... Alexander Mourcouris. (Book of Revelation?)

If 50,000 years ago "someone" decided to create a human species based on Neanderthal and homo sapiens, why is it outrageous to think that someone now maybe powers and principalities above are doing it again, this time "combining" Africans, Asians and Caucasians per a formula the other-worldlies desire. # If the first theory above is dubious, what does that say about the second?

Don't expect points for doing this or that, unless you're supporting their priorities... but they expect points for what they do ~ after all they're supporting the narrative, are you?

Should we help Ukraine more, or listen to George Washington's farewell address? He knew that in the Old World they were corrupt aristocracies, mafias and oligarchs but we seem to have forgotten much of that.

When we see the bombed-out cities in Ukraine we want to help but will arms or diplomacy be more effective? We know in hindsight that we should've stopped Hitler sooner but what about Putin ~ is the jury still out?

America's detractors say we bombed and killed thousands in Iraq, Afghanistan, Vietnam, Libya etc. In my opinion most but not all of that was wrong, intervention is a slippery, tricky slope... an ice mountain.

For some of us the question is even trickier because of Zelansky's background, sponsors and overlords. Ukrainian misinformation and corruption may not be as bad as Russia's but it might be close.

If I didn't believe what the main stream media said about Covid 19 why would I fully believe what it says about Ukraine? They fed us massive misinformation. Covid and immigration coverage was "influenced" by; big pharma, NWO and the OG etc. Ukraine/Russia by; NWO, MIC, OG etc. # Stop calling it NWO, they've been around too long.

How much do we know about the combatants... are we helping the Crips against the Bloods?

Who are the best tourists in the world? The man says the Russians but Chinese tourists must be more prolific and Americans might be up there with them. One also hears about the Germans and British... Anyway despite the stereotypes of Chinese with cameras and others being heavy drinkers, it's a bell curve. Whatever the demographics they all spend lots of money.

Thank you AutoCorrect for the word Femographics... not sure what it means but like it! 😊

No matter what Russia thought about Ukraine joining NATO, de-Nazification or implementation of the Minsk agreement they should not have invaded. It was wrong and evil, but they did it. And Ukraine possibly could've avoided this war too. There are two sides of the coin, one or two bad actors and two decent peoples.

Russia could've relied on their nuclear arsenal and mutual assured destruction but they didn't. Ukraine may have been able to avoid the destruction they've already endured and the further destruction they may endure... it's a tragedy all around - God help them and God help the rest of the world of it spreads.

When "people watching", or talking to peeps, an interesting life story is as important as an attractive visage... good looking peeps are a dime a dozen, great life stories aren't.

Stead of thanking me for graying from the bottom, not the top down, I might be blamed for receding hair and bad sinuses... 😬 😊

Wants us to thrive...like the song says 'I want something just like this.' 😊

NPR says modern medicine make us live longer, Bloomberg runs a Pfizer ad and Moody Radio quotes Jesus saying he is the way, the truth and the life... just saying.

I agree with those who say were very similar but not with those who say we're the same... and another thing 😊 the first half of life goes so slow second half so fast'

Similar but not the same and when it comes to women, I was under the mistaken impression that we were more alike than we actually are. The media and school taught that we're very much alike but after 38 years of marriage, I realize we're not...

My wife got a pedicure and spent 10 minutes finding just the right sandals so her workmates could see her toes... this on a very cold day! Shoes are important to her but when I go out, just don't want them to be muddy... Viva le difference!

The anecdote to Mark twain's quote about misinformation is get it from as many sources as possible.

Our lives are seriously if not severely influenced by those who want to control the lives of others, either locally regionally or worldwide... it's not funny. Those with drive and money are the most successful but anybody can get in on it and that's not funny either. When we're missing, it empowers their mission to our omission.

Slowing down allows us to think through things as we do them, speeding does not, specially in our 60's, to avoid sprains, muscle pulls and pinched nerves... ouch! When we take our time, we might have time to respond instead of react.

The smartest people rarely seem bestowed with great wisdom. Solomon was an exception, as illustrated in the story of two women fighting over a babe. Unless someone else had piped in, he came up with a novel solution. # Better call Sol 😊. Another example of great intelligence and questionable wisdom is the Chinese, who seem to prefer or tolerate collectivism over individual freedom.

We congratulate ourselves for all our smart decisions, great timing etc, when we drive, but when things go wrong we blame someone else.

I believe some demographics/genomes are a bit more violent than “average”, and some might be more perverse...that's not to say any are angels... not by any stretch.

Chinese Confucian wisdom is like Old Testament wisdom, it makes sense but like all peeps they miss the mark.

Also oppose Poodlization of the American male... they're good dogs but stick to making Doodles.

Would regret a theocracy bout as much as this impending wokocracy.

Don't remember exactly when I learned how to snap fingers but remember when I couldn't...it works best in the tub.

Second amendment forever, because free peeps have always wanted a means of self-defense ~ without which we're serfs, slaves or Doodles. # Good dogs make bad peeps.

Be it groundhogs or Blue Jays, I try peaceful measures first, like blocking the hole to our basement, or removing the ladder they're building a nest on. Since Jays hit my head and hogs invade the crawl space...sterner measures may follow.

So, you want to go to war against Russia and China but can you stop hypersonic nuclear missiles? If not, it'd be wise to put it off a while.

Based on the information and misinformation out there, I'd guess Ukraine is no angel but doesn't hold a candle to Russia's misdeeds.

What if somebody gave a war and nobody came?

Is het mogelijk dat de verschrikkelijke dingen die de Joden in de loop van de geschiedenis periodiek overkomen, deel uitmaken van de cycli van de natuur en het universum? Geloven ze als de vermeende uitverkoren mensen dat ze een missie hebben om de wereld van zichzelf te redden en zegt de rest van de wereld periodiek dat genoeg genoeg is en reageert ze vreselijk? # Infinity, powers and principalities...

In Ukraine you have the Occupied Government and the right wing who apparently descend from the Nazis and Stepan Bandera. They're assisted by the New World Order of Europe and the United States and facing Russia which fears encroachment and wants an empire. That's quite a mix and looking on with interest are giants China and India... and lots of other players.

It's possible that the conflict between Ukraine and Russia isn't that different than the conflict between the Palestinians and Israelis. It may go back thousands of years amongst closely related people... why are we getting involved? # George Washington said...

How has the constitution been subverted? Franklin said if you want security more than freedom, you'll get neither and via universal vote that's what we got... peeps realized they can vote to spend their neighbor's money. There are demographics and people of all illks who would like to be taken care of from cradle to grave and demand security from their overlord while the rest of us want freedom... at the moment we're losing.

Of course, it's more important to feed babies than fill potholes but eventually you have more babies than potholes and you can't feed them anyway parental responsibility is important too. But you can't compare broken axles and flat tires to babies, but they grow up... then what. "Dealin' in multiplication And they still can't feed everyone" ... Eddie Grant

I don't know if we're musky and your pungent or it's the other way around... either way I like it.

A woman may sleep with one eye open but that's to keep an eye on her man... it's his job to keep an eye out for the thief in the night... she's also listening for any babes in the vicinity.

Stopped rushing around, can't keep her happy but promoting favorable conditions is the least I can do. I realize that no matter what, she'll complain a bit ~ that's how women come off the shelf just as we come off the shelves like you know whats... If women didn't complain it would be a dereliction of duty because encouragement doesn't seem to work very well with us.

So, let me get this straight, does Zellensky represent; democracy, woke-ism, OGs and NWO and the Azlov battalion represents Stepan Bandera and the Nazis and they are proverbial strange bed fellows at the moment? # That doesn't make Russia the good guys.

After watching the episode of Poldark where he forcibly 'beds' Elizabeth, I wonder if women think of us as bears and rapists?

Christians of all denominations expect Jesus to come back after certain things are fulfilled, mostly relating to the Jews and Israel. Do the Jews believe they've a mandate to save the world and does our eternal salvation depend on rubber stamping their actions? What lies ahead? Did John of Patmos, Ezekiel etc. describe it and are our "great religionists" interpreting things accurately? This as a car flies past me on the bridge, as I drive to fix the flat tire my wife had on her way to church.

In many ways a wife is a poor substitute for a mother but there is sex, which a good man would never want from his Madre.

The CBN news channel, "A perspective you can trust", is their slogan, but I just saw Gordon Robertson present a show on the history of Israel and the Palestinians that was so one-sided it wasn't even funny.

Later on, there was a infomercial for CB Biologics a local business claiming to be able to cure darn near anything that might ail a person. It reminded me of Pat Robertson describing maladies that he apparently was given knowledge of through the Holy Spirit and praying over them for afflicted members of the audience. It goes something like this, "there's someone out there with a bad kidney", he prays and suggests that they will be healed. It's hard for me to believe that either of the above or anything more than businesses trying to pay their bills... but it's a free country.

I don't think the US economy or stock market is a Ponzi scheme but it may be that cousin called a confidence game.

I think my wife is neither typical nor atypical, so if you're to marry, consider her "on the spectrum."

If I like butter so much why do I hate getting it on my fingers

If you control the banks, you can control mergers and acquisitions, you can control corporations and determine who will own industry and they did... You can also do the same with; politicians, bar association, schools, media and entertainment and they did... money, money, money.

Perhaps the goal is to dumb down America, in any case it's happening making their job, priorities and goals for America and the world easier if they're aloud.

Half of America at least has become an "amen chorus", to Uncle Joe Biden, as he reads messages to the sheeple... Preaching to an amen choir isn't good except maybe at church.

They say men turn from microwaves to crockpots sexually is they get older... eventually becoming broken... I'm getting there.

Usually arrive at the Flesher's at 10:25 which is no surprise because I know how long it takes to drive there the variables are; traffic, do I need gas and has anything fallen off the trailer.

Rounding the bend on Sweetwater Trail I look in the mirror and see that the trailer's still in one piece and smile... then I remember the biggest bumps are still ahead.

My second pee stop is up ahead at the fire station where I also check texts and emails at least that's my story if I'm ever confronted by the police.

I love Salt Creek but don't like that things are always breaking or broken.

There are few guarantees given in life and fewer yet that are honored.

The widely reported "factoid", that the universe is infinite makes me believe that possibilities are as well, both positive and negative throughout our universe and our lives. Relate this to cycles in the universe and "powers and principalities” that we cannot see but which may influence our lives. # did you mean witch? 🧙‍♀️

By dumbing down Americans through various strategies it makes their goal dominating America and the world easier. What would Franklin and Washington say... and do?

They’ve no reservations about sacrificing people or countries for their goals and they always double down, perhaps that’s why they periodically suffer terrible retribution. Their Ace in the hole is a storyline and narrative that’s generally accepted by the populace. Will “truths” finally emerge and be told, and will the search for further truths be fostered instead of obstructed?

Lifting my foot to put on my socks I feel bad things happening in my back etc. and attempt to mitigate them. Irreversible damage has been done over the years but I consider mitigation worth the effort.

The Occupied government in Ukraine is in lock step and married to European and American occupied governments and determined to bring the west and America into their war with Russia...time will tell if that’s the right thing to do.

“Former senior State Department official, hard-line right-wing war hawk Eliot A. Cohen, boasted in an article in The Atlantic magazine that the “United States and its NATO allies are engaged in a proxy war with Russia.” He effused proudly, “They are supplying thousands of munitions and hopefully doing much else—sharing intelligence, for example—with the intent of killing Russian soldiers,” adding, “the more and faster the better.” The State Department veteran declared that the “stream of arms going into Ukraine needs to be a flood.”

My dear wife is everything I ever wanted plus a bit of a temper 😊

Be who you want to be and let us be who we want to be.

Picking up my socks, I remember my finger toes. They're not as good as hers but they work for socks. Having used a reacher grabber for a year I'd almost forgotten

"Bloomberg spends almost all of its profits on transforming lives around the world" ... Bloomberg radio commercial...#Sure, yeah.

I guess you can't say they're using it to promote the New World order cause it ain't new anymore.

What Russia is doing in Ukraine is abominable but that may have been made possible by what the New World order has demanded and declared for us.

The guest on Bloomberg said income disparity is poisoning society and the rich know it...it might even bother them but it's hard letting go of their perks.

According to one report, in 2014 underfunded German soldiers tried hiding their lack of machine guns during a NATO exercise, by placing black broomsticks on top of their armored vehicles... wouldn't it be nice if wars were fought that way. #Gave a war and nobody came.

“Emotionally potent over-simplifications would have to be provided by myth makers to keep the ordinary person on the right course... Noam Chomsky

The neocons and the elders knowing that most Americans tie and equate their eternal salvation to rubberstamping whatever Israel does, have used that to their advantage, provoking wars throughout the Middle East and elsewhere, including Ukraine. Which under the Soros influenced government, for now are bedfellows of the followers of Stepan Bandera, Azov Battalion etc.

If all this tragically leads to the end of the world as we know it, the various sides will blame each other and their remaining populace will largely side with their government spin doctors and media overlords, because history is a team sport and we never learn enough from it. History as usual will be written by the victors...if there are any.

“Round up the usual suspects” ... Captain Renault

“The war Is An Absurdity In 21st Century. The war is evil. There is no way a war can be acceptable in the 21st century” ... UN secretary General Antonio Guterres #Yes, yes and yes.
